To Whom It May Concern:

Fr. Edwin Savundranayagam taught in the philosophy department at the University of St. Thomas as an adjunct instructor during the spring semester of 1999 and as a full-time instructor during the 1999/2000 academic year. He was most conscientious in the preparation of his courses, took all of his responsibilities seriously, and was well-liked by his students. Father Edwin clearly enjoyed teaching, and was a good and kind colleague. He possessed a maturity that enabled him to relate sympathetically to a wide range of people. He was always friendly and pleasant to be around. Father Edwin's background in non-Western philosophy and culture provided a welcome addition to the department.

Please feel free to contact me at [REDACTED] if I can be of any further help to you.
